The office manual does not contemplate such cases & may be taken to indicate that no such records should be secured as the final records as at present constituted. So it seems that such valuable records should be secured in the office of the Head of the dept concerned, to wit the Mun. Supdt's office or under his instructions, in the office of the Tirupati Peshkar. May the Registrar of C.R.S be consulted in the matter?

The only second place that can be thought of in the Secty is the Cash Section It would however be inconvenient to lodge the same in the Cash Section as the same will be quite unaware of its contents and cannot take timely action when ever required as such documents will often be of such a nature as would necessitate periodical action The most proper place appears to be the office which deals with the papers in question.

S i r,

In inviting reference to correspodnece ending with Government Order No. 815-6/M. F. 291-1044 dated 12th October 1911 about the - purchase of a house at Tirchanur for use as a rest house, I have the honor to state that now that a building has been purchased it is - necessary that an establishment to look after it should be maintained.

2. The Peshkar proposes an establishment costing Rs. 10/- a month as his report No. 166 dated 17th December 1911 enclosed will show. I am of opinion that for the ~~provision~~ grant an establishment costing - Rs. 7/- a month may be sanctioned tentatively pending the revision of the scale of expenditure in the Tirupati Charities. The charge may be met from the annual savings out of the Budget grant for the Tirupati Charities.

3. As the establishment may have been entertained since the 15th of last month retrospective effect may be given to this order.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Superintendent.
